

John's love of music began with singing in school choirs and learning classical piano, (8th Grade AMEB). Some 20 years later he began writing songs and has written more than 80 to date. People like Chris James, Mikal Neilsen and Dick Rigby, with their interest in toning have inspired John's work, which is best described as a blend of New Age and Adult Contemporary styles.

Achievements:

- "Sorry" (reconciliation theme) aired on 4AAA (98.9FM) radio on National Sorry Day 2001.
- "Many People, One Voice - A Spotlight on Human Rights" produced, directed and staged at the Logan Entertainment Centre 2002.
- 3rd place, Open Own Composition Redlands Festival 2003, with "The Traveller" (a song about trusting your spirit).

Public Workshops

Sing For Joy 😊

Enjoy a practical workshop to open up your heart, help you discover your natural voice and make you feel alive!

No solos are required, so it suits people who are naturally shy about their voice.

John is an energetic facilitator who loves to help others find joy through connecting with their inner self.

Contact John or call the Relaxation Centre (Cnr Brookes & Wickham Sts. Fortitude Valley) on Ph. 3854 1986.

You are guaranteed an uplifting experience.

Voice Coaching

Designed to help you find and enjoy your inner voice and to understand what affects your voice. You will also learn more about how your voice works and become your own teacher. Conducted individually or best conducted in small groups.

Host your own Workshops & Retreats

Get a group of 12 or more people together and I will come to you! All you need is a venue suitable to your group's needs, for people to enjoy some music, to sing and have some space to move around.

Workshops and retreats can be designed around particular themes to suit your needs and can be anything from one and a half hours to full days or full weekends.

If you would like to know more, please call:-

(07) 3806 1169 / 0413 383 159

Free entry for host and partner!
