

Sounds Of Singchronicity - March 10

Less is more.....

Newsletter format

As part of my new look website & newsletter, I have a lot more information on the website about singing & sound events for you to participate in. This is so you can find out about events much sooner than my once-per-month newsletter. You can find them by following the link to <http://singyourvoice.com/category/general-events/> at any time throughout the month, to get the latest. For my own events, go to <http://singyourvoice.com/category/my-events/>

This means that when it comes time to send out the monthly newsletter, all the events will have been posted to my website, with links to other websites where available.

My aim is to provide you with fast access to information on the events that grab your interest, rather than the newsletter carrying full details on every event.

So, the new format will provide you with a brief overview of the event, with a link to the full article on my website, so you can "click through" on the events that grab your interest instead of having to filter through detailed information that doesn't take your interest at this time. This will make it more efficient for you as the reader, as well as for us in compiling the newsletter and keeping it to a reasonable file size. I hope you like it! I look forward to your feedback. Let me know what you think by sending an email to john@singyourvoice.com or using the form on the website at <http://singyourvoice.com/contact/>

Tell Your Story.....

I have included a section where you can put your own stories relating to singing and voice, what it does for you, what you have seen happen for others etc. Go to <http://singyourvoice.com/category/singing-stories/> to tell your story.

Advertise Events

There is a web form now at <http://singyourvoice.com/517/ask-us-to-advertise-your-event/> for you to ask me to post coming events on my website for you. These are subject to my agreement that they fit the general philosophy of Singchronicity, but I haven't declined any as yet! Some of these events may not be "my thing" but I am happy to promote them if they allow people to participate in generating sound and song!

Feedback Please?

There are a few places on the website where you can leave your feedback about various items and I would encourage you to use them. It is my way of keeping in touch with you and your ideas/opinions and provides a forum for you to get involved.

Singchronicity is....

Singchronicity is an agent of personal development for individuals and teams needing the confidence to share their voice with others. Unlike other more confrontational approaches, Singchronicity identifies, and then provides solutions to unlock the real blockages holding people back so they can deliver their 'stuff' with clarity and confidence!
Happy times ahead.....
