

Singclusion Inc.

Singclusion Inc's Non-profit Policy

Singclusion Inc. is a not-for profit association. In accordance with our constitution, the objects of the association are—

1. To utilise music, with a particular focus on singing and or songwriting, as a vehicle for social inclusion

2. To provide personal and professional development and recording opportunities for musicians who may not have the knowledge, skills or finances to do so independently

3. To integrate musical activity into other art forms

✚ The assets and income of this association shall be applied solely in the furtherance of its above-mentioned objects and no portion shall be distributed directly or indirectly to the members of the association except as bona fide compensation for services rendered, or for expenses incurred on behalf of the association.

✚ In the event that the association is wound-up and has surplus assets, the surplus assets must not be distributed among the members of the association. The surplus assets must be given to another entity having objects similar to the association's objects; and the rules of which prohibit the distribution of the entity's income and assets to its members.

✚ In accordance with the Australian Taxation Office's 'Income tax guide for non-profit organisations' Mixed Beans has been identified as belonging to the 'Cultural Organisations – Music' Category has met the requirements to be classified as exempt from income tax. In particular, it meets the following requirements:

- ❖ It is a non-profit organisation
- ❖ It is established for community service purposes
- ❖ It is not a charity
- ❖ It has its physical presence in Australia
