

Sounds Of Singchronicity - July 11

Intuition.....loud & clear!

What is intuition?

Dictionary.com defines it as 'direct perception of truth, fact, etc., independent of any reasoning process' and Wikipedia says it is 'understanding without apparent effort'. I describe it as 'The knowing'. So, here is my story about intuition.... Last year Kerrie & I went to the Mind Body Spirit Festival on the weekend. It was so crowded and noisy that we decided to go on Friday instead this year, so we could look around without all the noise (literal & figurative). A few weeks ago I received an email offering free tickets to the festival and graciously accepted, thanks to Elohisia <http://www.keetarah.com/> It is probably no coincidence that my first spiritual CD I ever bought was recorded by Elohisia. (Synchronicity at work) Before leaving home, I drew 2 Destiny Cards from my 'Path of the Soul' deck: The 1st was the 'Intuitive Arts Guide' which said 'you are in service & your intuitive knowing is strong' and to share this with others. The 2nd card was 'Encoded' telling me to be mindful of anything that catches my attention. What an exciting way to head off to an MBS Festival! As we arrived, a car park a few hundred metres from the main entrance opened up. I had marked out a couple of artists who were performing that I wanted to hear and I was hoping to find a neck pendant of some sort.

I was attracted to a stand that sold various Mayan items, including jewellery <http://www.newearthart.com.au/> and drew an oracle card from a Mayan Key Deck with the symbol IK for Wind. It said that Wind is 'here to inspire us to create our own reality and to follow our intuition'! I saw a pendant with Mayan symbol for 'movement' called Ollin. The power of Ollin reveals destiny for all those who are prepared to evolve. It didn't grab me enough to buy it then, so I went to listen to Alora Waldron & Brian Cramp of Soul Fire soulfirecreations.com They asked us to set ourselves an intention & join them in a beautiful sound meditation. I set the intention of becoming 'unstuck' as I had been feeling a bit stagnated lately. During this experience, I was guided to go back to the Mayan stand to buy the Ollin pendant. While I was there, I drew another card from the deck to reveal the 'Crystal Tone' telling me that I have something to share with others for the greater good & 'take care not to underestimate the value of sharing your experiences, realisations & understandings' hence this article today! I was so impressed by this deck of cards that I bought it to. My birth symbol in the Mayan culture is Kaban - Earth which stresses the importance on continuing to grow & develop (strong alignment to Ollin), to focus on the bigger picture & to allow it to evolve.

I then found a coffee stall that sold Rainforest Alliance, Organic Mayan Coffee...the best I have enjoyed in many years! (Do you sense a theme!) After coming home, I went to Elohisia's website to discover that she is also very strongly into the Mayan Culture as well! That completes the circle for me... my intuition has led me into a closed loop reinforcing the messages received! Elohisia has also introduced me to 432Hz tuning which is consistent with the harmonic of light, sacred geometry & perfectly matches the tuning of my Native American Indian Flute which I thought was slightly out of tune! It all becomes clear as the encoding is decoded!
